SOCIETY

forward with pleasure to the return of Mrs. Fletcher Rye and Miss Doris Rye, who will arrive in San Francisco early in October. Mrs. Rye and her daughter have been during the summer at Newport, where they have been entertained extensively, and their visit to California will be marked by innumerable affairs in their honor. —San Francisco Chronicle.

Among the passengers who arrived on the Wilhelmina yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. Baldwin. They were married in San Francisco early this month, where Mr. Baldwin went to claim his bride, who was Ruth Carolyn Johnston, formerly of this city.

It will be of interest to local society folk to know that Matteo Sandona, the painter well known here, and Mrs. Sandona entertained for the bride and groom in San Francisco. A San Francisco paper of September 19 says:

"Adorned with autumn flowers and hung with rich Oriental draperies, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matteo Sandona on Buena Vista avenue presented a fascinating appearance yesterday afternoon when 200 guests gathered in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Elmer Baldwin of Honolulu, whose marriage was a recent social event."

Mrs. Sandona was assisted in receiving by Mesdames Benjamin D. Baldwin of Honolulu, Louis Mullgardt, Leo Lentelli, and the Misses Frances Joliffe, Anne Peters and Olympia Goldarone.

"An interesting feature of the afternoon was the exhibition of a number of portraits of men and women, well known in society."

Dr. and Mrs. George Herbert, who left Honolulu in the early part of the summer, after having toured the western coast, will return in the Manoa on Tuesday morning. Miss Rose Herbert left with them, but will remain on the mainland for two months or more.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Byr entered several of their friends Monday evening at their home, Hotel and Lake-like streets, with an informal party. A varied musical program was the feature of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacFarlane were among the departing passengers in the S. S. Manchuria, which left Honolulu this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. MacFarlane expect to be gone for some weeks.

Mrs. Bernice Walbridge, Miss Alice Parks and their brother, Will Parks, closed their beautiful domicile on the Fall road and departed in the Manchuria this morning for a visit to the fair.

Miss Agnes McIntyre left for a visit to the exposition this morning in the Manchuria. After touring California for several weeks Miss McIntyre will return to her island home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Castle were among the departing passengers in the Manchuria this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Castle expect to spend some time visiting the exposition.

Miss Mattie Thap, a charming girl from Memphis, Tenn., arrived in Honolulu last week to spend the winter with Miss Tempe Shelton, daughter of Mrs. T. L. Shelton.

Miss Dorothy Pascoe, the charming daughter of Mrs. G. A. Pascoe, left in the last Manchuria for California. Miss Pascoe will enter Notre Dame at San Jose.

Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Westervelt, who have been visiting on the mainland for about two months, are booked to return in the Manoa, which arrives on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. M. Miss were among those who bid farewell to the islands this morning and sailed in the Manchuria for San Francisco.

Miss Ruth Benedict, who has for some time been the secretary of Central Union church, left this morning in the Manchuria for San Francisco for a vacation trip.

Miss Harriet Lucas and Mrs. Chas. Lucas will soon be among the exposition visitors, having departed in the steamer Manchuria this morning.

Lieut. C. R. Abraham of the 24 Infantry left this morning in the Manchuria. Lieut. Abraham will lead a society girl in Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. White Sutton answered the call of the Exposition City and departed in the steamer Manchuria today.

Mrs. Merle M. Johnson is expected to return to Honolulu in the Manoa next Tuesday.

LAST RUN OF KELLERMANN FILM

Annette Kellermann bids farewell to Honolulu tonight, appearing for the last time in "Neptune's Daughter" at the Bijou theater, where she has spent the last week playing to good business at each performance. The beauty of the scenery shown, the artistic ability of the performers, and especially the finished performance of Miss Kellermann have all combined to make this film popular and a good drawing card.

'WHITE SLAVERY' EXPOSED BY FILM

With the full indorsement of the Sociological Research organization at whose instigation it was made, the telling film, "The Inside of the White Slave Traffic," will be exhibited at the Hawaii theater for a short engagement, commencing next Thursday evening. This film has caused a sensation wherever it has been shown. In some instances it has met with violent opposition but in many cases it has had the support of press, pulpit and sociological workers.

Dealing with a question that has been prominent before the public for a number of years past, and a subject which has called for legislation in almost every state in the Union and by the national legislators, this picture has called forth a great deal of comment. It has been made the subject of numerous sermons, pro and con. It has been shown to millions of people, in both private and public exhibitions.

The San Francisco Bulletin says: "Every man and woman should see this picture."

Dancing Classes

Madame Lester, who gave exhibition dances at social functions at the Moana hotel in July, will return to Honolulu about October 1 and arrange a select dancing school for instruction in ballroom and the newest society dances of New York, Chicago and San Francisco. Full particulars later.

Address Madame Lester, care of Adv. Mgr., Star-Bulletin, pending arrival.
